DON'T MISS!

KEEP ON KEEPIN' ON

The viewing of this extraordinary film will be followed by a Q & A with Grammy Award-Winning director Alan Hicks, a performance of the music of Clark Terry by a live all star band, including Alan Hicks (drums), Nick Garbett (trumpet), James Greening (trombone) Matt Smith (guitar), Barney McAll (keys) and Johnathan Zwartz (bass). The evening takes place at Gerringong Hall from 7pm on Friday, with delicious refreshments available.

WELCOME TO COUNTRY

Gumaraa - Sunday, Welcome to country, Smoking ceremony & traditional dance

BUSKERS

Be sure to catch some super cool talent along Terralong street. Guitar cases are ready for your coins.

TERRALONG STREET PARTY

We are creating a super special Sunday treat by closing Terralong street between Railway Pde and Manning Street, activating a whole street party!

HOME COOKING: A TONY ALLEN TRIBUTE

Home Cooking is a celebration of Tony Oladipo Allen. The night will feature an eight-piece band, boasting some of Australia's most established, creative and hard grooving musicians.

BARNEY MCALL NON-COMPLIANCE TRIO

On Saturday Grammy nominated, ARIA-winning artist, Barney McAll, is one of Australia's most innovative musicians and composers. For his Non Compliance Trio, he unites two talented rising stars Jacques Emery (Bass) Alex Inman-Hislop (Drums) to explore a mix of brand-new original music and obscure old-world gems.

MAIN STAGE

From 11 am - 5 pm Sunday - sit back and enjoy the spoils of the 36th KJBF in its all new location. Terralong Street has been claimed for the Street party, activated with food trucks & Henry Clive Caravan Bar will keep us refreshed. Kids, dogs, friends, family and what a view!

FESTIVAL FINALE

This ticketed event on 33 Bong Bong Street will feature Francisco Sonur, Cone of Confusion, Firetail and Oyobi. Come on by and make some noise to wrap up the amazing weekend: 3 - 9pm!

BARNEY MCALL

Come and join the celebrated pianist & composer Barney McAll for his mesmerising concert "Hymns, Elegies & Reflections: A Piano Hour" a spiritual & soulful musical journey. Over his 20 years of touring internationally, alongside a prolonged stint working in the notoriously competitive jazz scene of New York, McAll has established a unique solo piano style. He is a celebrated Australian artist, one of our best, being Grammy nominated & ARIA award winning; having contributed to over 100 albums, creating 22 solo works; & working in collaboration with some of music's finest including Dewey Redman, Gary Bartz, SIA, Maceo Parker, Kurt Rosenwinkel and Fred Wesley.

In addition to his Sunday solo performance, McAll will be joined by Jacques Emery (Bass) Alex Inman-Hislop (Drums) for their Non Compliance Trio performance on Saturday. Here he unites two talented rising stars to explore a mix of brand-new original music and obscure old-world gems.

"an apex of all-out funk, brought the house down"
-The Australian

KEEP ON KEEPIN' ON

Head to Gerringong Town Hall on Friday night to take a seat and enjoy a viewing of Alan Hicks's extraordinary film Keep On Keepin' On. The documentary follows jazz legend Clark Terry over four years, capturing his mentorship of 23-year-old blind piano prodigy Justin Kauflin who prepares to compete in an elite international competition.

Hicks is a Grammy Award-Winning filmmaker based in Sydney and Los Angeles. After working as a musician in and around New York earlier in life, Hicks transitioned to filmmaking, directing his first feature documentary

Keep On Keepin' On. The film proved highly successful, winning both the Audience Award and Best New Director honours at the 2014 Tribeca Film Festival. It later garnered awards from the IDFA, AFI, Cinema Eye, Seattle Film Festival, Palm Springs, Hamptons Summer Docs and was additionally shortlisted for the Academy Awards Best Documentary Feature in 2015.
